Request for higher electric, gas rates

Illinois Power Co. announced Friday at Decatur that it is filing a request with the Illinois Commerce Commission to increase rates an average of 9.5 per cent for its electric and natural gas customers.

The increase, if approved, would amount to approximately $26,000,000 additional annual revenue for the company, which serves the Quad-Cities.

Under the proposal, a residential electric customer using 568 kilowatt hours a month would pay about $1.38 a month more for electricity. The 568 kwh figure is close to the average usage by residential electric customers of Illinois Power.

A feature of the rate filing is that it applies to natural gas as well as electricity. The company is taking a step toward equalizing gas rates throughout the IP system, to reflect progressive interconnection of pipeline suppliers. The company said the effect of the requested natural gas increase to customers will vary because of this.

Increases in gas costs to residential, commercial and small industrial customers would range from 3.54 per cent to 14.15 per cent. The average would be about 8 per cent.

In 1971, the company requested a 15 per cent electric rate increase and was turned down.

In 1972, Illinois Power again filed for a 15 per cent electric rate increase but was granted only a 5 per cent increase effective in June 1973.

The company serves 461,000 electric customers and 450,000 natural gas customers in a 15,000 square-mile area in Illinois.

Steadily increasing costs of rendering service—including construction, material, money and labor costs—have made the increases necessary, said the company in its filing with the state Commerce Commission.

County Board seats in 14 of the county's 29 districts. Five of the district elections for County Board members will be held in the Quad-City area.

Tomorrow's vote estimate was based on predictions by County Clerk Eulalia Holtz whose office at Edwardsville was winding up final details today for tomorrow's balloting in a county total of 197 precincts.

Miss Holtz said that opposition in the Democratic primary and County Board election drives should bring out a reasonably heavy primary vote of approximately 37,800 ballots with a 3 to 1 Democratic margin. Specifically, she said, she is anticipating a countywide Democratic vote of about 39,000 ballots and a Republican vote of about 8,900.

This is 28 per cent of the county's total voter registration of 131,775 recorded after recent registration periods, an increase of 774 voters over the official registration total of 131,001 in the 1972 elections.

New registration figures show that of the total 774-voter registration increase for the entire county, 757 of the additional registrations are in the Quad-Cities, with the bulk of the increase in Chouteau Township.

Chouteau Township has a total registration of 43,438 qualified voters, up 617 from the 1972 registration of 3,821. Granite City now has 20,545 voters, up 36 from the 1972 figure and Nameoki Township has 7,845 voters, up 216. Venice, 6,208 currently registered voters, down 30 from the 1972 registration of 6,238.

Republican activity in the primary election, marked by a lack of candidates for some offices in the primary election and no candidates at all for County Board nominations in the Quad-City area, has been light. For that reason, a Democratic margin of more than 3 to 1 predicted by Miss Holtz countywide, is anticipated by political observers in the Quad-City area.

The Democrats, however, have conducted active campaigns in the primary election and no county offices subject to tomorrow's election, but also state representative. Eleven candidates are seeking these two nominations in the 56th legislative district.

Three candidates are seeking the nomination as county clerk on the Democratic ticket, two candidates seek the county treasurer's nomination, three are in the field for sheriff and two candidates seek the nomination as county superintendent of the educational service region.

Four Democrats also are waging a spirited campaign for election as Democratic state central committeemen of the 23rd congressional district, with one of those candidates from Madison County.

Richard Brawley, 21, of 2033 Andell Blvd., was fatally injured and two other young men from Granite City were seriously hurt when their eastbound car crashed into a bridge abutment on State Aid Route 35 east of Route 111, near the Holiday Mobile Home Park, at 9:10 p.m. Sunday.

The driver, Ramon H. Rutledge Jr., 21, of 2528 E. 27th St., is in serious condition today at Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

Both are in the intensive care unit here.

State troopers said they were unable to determine why the auto struck the bridge. Mr. Brawley, also a passenger, appeared to be without signs of life when troopers arrived.

It was pronounced dead at the scene at 9:45 p.m. Sunday by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner.

Rutledge and Lancaster were taken to ambulances at St. Louis.

Co-chairmen for Salvation Army's drive

Chester L. Baker and George Pulianus have been named co-chairmen of the Salvation Army capital fund drive for a new Corps building and community center.

Baker, president of Tri-City Printing Co., is also president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Pulianus, vice president-administration at Granite City Steel, was vice-chairman of the October 1973 Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign.

The Salvation Army drive co-chairmen were announced at a planning session held Thursday afternoon at the Illinois Power Co.

It was noted that $100,000 is being sought in the initial or special phase of the drive, and $20,000 will be the objective of the basic solicitation. Along with $30,000 contributed by Granite City Steel, these totals amount to $200,000.

Drive headquarters have been opened at 1832 State St., where the telephone number is 876-0610.

The Salvation Army Citadel is at 19th Street and Grand Avenue where the telephone number is 451-7957.

Those wishing to take part in the drive activities or to contribute are being invited to contact either of the offices.

Volunteers are needed, the co-chairmen said. To aid in developing drive teams, local churches, veterans' groups and fraternal organizations are being enlisted in the effort.

The $200,000 is part of a grand total of $314,500 estimated as the cost of a new building and equipment. It has been announced that $114,500 already is available from gifts and bequests.

A one-story multi-purpose building utilizing Stran Steel is to be constructed at Maryville Road and Glory Lane on land donated in part by the Phillip Morris.

It is to serve as the Corps headquarters and a community center for all age groups.

The present building, with some repairs and renovations, is to become the office for Salvation Army social welfare programs, including the annual Tree of Lights assistance program.

Those taking part in the discussions have included Ralph Astorian, chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board and Randall Robertson, the Rev. Paul Surbey, Avery Schermer, Melvin C. Wilmsey, Richard M. West, Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City.

Venice parents-teachers organize

About 50 parents and teachers met last week in the Venice School Library to organize a new parent-teacher club.

Mrs. Jan Blatz, who was named temporary chairman, said the club is being formed to "enable us to work together for the benefit of the pupils and the school district as a whole."

"We hope to get-together and exchange ideas for the betterment of the schools and especially the children," she commented.

Mrs. Jeannette Wilkinson was elected co-chairman, and Mrs. Donna Hoover was named secretary. Both offices are temporary until a permanent corps of officers can be selected, Mrs. Blatz said.

Chosen to serve on the organizing committee were Mesdames Sherry Dumas, Bernice Jones, Verla Arnold, Geneva Brandon, Susan Johnson, Ila Fleig and the three officers.

Parents of all Venice students are invited to attend the group's next meeting at 7 p.m. Monday, March 25 in the Venice School Library when a program agenda will be compiled, Mrs. Blatz said.

Music students perform at party

An ensemble party was held at St. Cecilia's Music Studio, 1729 Primrose Ave., operated by Donald and Orizana MacDonald, for students enrolled in the fall and winter program.

Emphasis for the term has been on ensemble work, teaching the fun of making music together, the instructors said.

The program consisted of duets for piano, organ and piano, a piano trio and group singing.

Featured numbers included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, played by Lisa Groothuis at the organ and Brent Weiss at the piano; "Fantasia" by Clifford Demarest, with Dan Vizer, piano and Mrs. MacDonald at the organ; and "Edin Dance" by Edward Grieg, presented by Joan, Susan and Ellen Range as a piano trio.

Others attending the program and party were Ronny Holt, Elaine Koesterer, Dawn Luebbert, Curt Graf, Jill Donley, Kathi and Karen Teitloff, Kathy Wilson, Christy Bauer, Shelle Hartzel, Charlene Bennington, Kathleen DeTuntz, Becky McCormis, Peggy Smolich, Lisa Smith and Cindy Baxzewski.

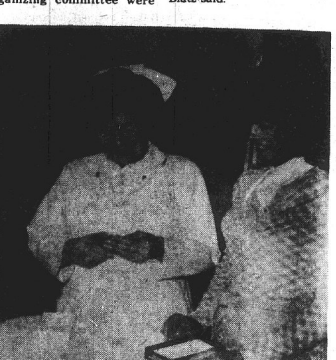

The hostess served refreshments with a St. Patrick's Day motif, including green shamrock cookies.

Explains new retirement law

"The Keogh" act, a new law enacted by Congress permitting private business operators to set up retirement plans for themselves was explained to the Granite City Optimist Club at its Thursday noon meeting at the YMCA.

Explaining the new act was Bruce Bowers, a representative from Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

The club voted to help sponsor a Youth conference at SIUE on March 25. The meeting is planned by the State of Illinois Department of Correction and will be attended by 84 local high school students.

President David Fox announced the appointment of a committee chaired by Optimist Jack Dempsey to make a study of significant needs of local youth-serving agencies that could be helped through money raised by the Camelot auction. The club has allotted $500 to the club's local scholarship fund.

Kiwanis Lt. Gov. S. Harold "Cotton" Roberts of Alton was a guest at Thursday's meeting. Optimist David Giese announced next week a representative of the Salvation Army would be present to "update" the club on the Army's $200,000 fund drive for a new community center.

Pontoon favors new census

A special census of Pontoon Beach will cost the village board $1,620, but the project would be justified because of larger allocations of motor fuel tax and revenue sharing funds, Dr. Dean Rochester, trustee and chairman of a special Census Committee, told the board in a meeting Thursday night.

Rochester said it is certain that an official census will show a substantial increase in the population of the village. Allocation of motor fuel tax funds by the state and revenue sharing funds by the federal government is based on population.

The documents and maps necessary to make such a census are being prepared for approval by the federal census bureau, the board was told.

The village board authorized Ronald Hastings, sanitary engineer, to check the cost of a 1,000-gallon per-minute pump for use in the Quiet Valley lagoon.

The board also authorized Mrs. Corrine Kreher, village clerk to purchase $150 worth of copy machine supplies.

After the meeting adjourned, Pastor Eugene Stevenson of the Central Free Methodist Church made inquiries as to the procedure his church should follow if it decides to build a new church on property at 4150 South Drive. He was told he first should contact the zoning board.

Pastor Stevens told the Press-Record, "We presently are conducting feasibility studies concerning the building of a new church, perhaps at the 4150 South Drive tract. However, there are other locations being considered."

A meeting of the congregation will be held March 23 to vote on selling the present building at 22nd and State streets, he said, adding that the church has an offer from another church to buy the building.

Rezoning, special use approved

A request for rezoning of property at 2700 Adams St. for construction of a 12-unit apartment building and a petition for a special use permit to build a medical building at 1013-1014 W. Pontoon Road were approved by the City plan Commission Thursday afternoon.

In both instances, the commission approved the rezoning and use permit requests after definite action had been delayed in the commission's February meeting pending presentation of more information.

The request to rezone the Adams Street site from R-2 (single-family dwelling) to R-5 (multiple dwelling) was approved over the objections of a delegation of about 20 neighborhood residents who also objected to the rezoning during the February meeting.

Action was delayed in February so that commission members could receive more detailed plans.

The petitioner, Robert Lombard, presented plans for the structure to plan commission members who also were assured that off-street parking would be provided. Objectors cited traffic problems and potential damage to streets and alleys as reasons that the request should be turned down.

The special use permit for a medical building to provide three doctors' office units in a one-story structure of approximately 7,500 square feet, was granted on a petition by Harvey Bonivar.

Action on that petition also had been deferred to Thursday from the February meeting so that the commission could obtain some assurances as to the provisions for proper drainage.

The commission decided to recommend approval of the use permit request subject to provisions for proper drainage of the tract.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gethung opposed the action on grounds that they would lose their privacy because the medical building would face their property, that parking would pose a problem and that traffic would be congested.

The board also approved a request for a special use permit for operation of an antique shop at 2609 Madison Ave. on the petition of David Isbell and Dale Williams. There were no objectors and the petitioners presented a petition signed by residents of the neighborhood favoring the permit.

The Madison High School Trojans will open their 1974 outdoor track season tomorrow in a 4 p.m. home meet with Mascoutah.

Last year, Madison dropped a 93-34 decision to the Indians in the season opener.

In the 1973 event, Trojan Kevin Boyd topped the field in the 100-yard dash in 10.3 seconds. Chris Stanley took second-place honors in the 120-yard high hurdles and there were second-place finishes by Joe Young in the 100-yard dash, Boyd in the 440 dash and Willie Shearrry in the low hurdles. Young was third in the 220-yard sprint. All of these MHS athletes are returning for the 1974 competition.

Madison Coach Charles Steptoe feels that "we are going to get it all together this year."

"All of our returning trackmen are bettering their old marks, and we have a lot of new talent."

A general meeting of Parents Without Partners, Granite City Chapter 470, will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the American Legion Hall, 1825 State St. It was announced by the president, Walter Bergfield.

On Saturday, March 30, a children's activity will take place at Monk's Mound, with the youngsters making and flying kites during the afternoon. Those planning to participate are to meet at the museum, Bergfield said.

(after 62-42 and 66-66 ties) and was Chicago Christian winning 69-57 over Lexington, Ottawa 50-47 over Ridgegate and Quincy Catholic 55-44 over Prophetstown.

Venice's Red Devils reached the "sweet 16" for the second successive season but were defeated 53-37 by Lawrenceville Tuesday night at Charleston.

Ron Henry of Venice has been named to the all-state team—a 20-member first squad—along with such players as Marc Fletcher of Collinsville and Lance Reillman of Breese.

Mattei Dei, Henry, a 6-7 senior, averaged 25 points a game as well as being a consistent rebounder.

This spring, the Cougars will compete in a 16-meet schedule, including the St. Louis Area College Athletic Association Tournament April 29.

The St. Louis based Guthrie and Burton Mustang, driven by Jim Guthrie, defeated Tom Kennedy's Red Baron Vega in the first round, but lost to the Gray Ghost in the second round.

The car did not appear for the third round after mechanics noticed pieces of metal from the damaged engine in the oil pan.

Bernie Patrick of Joliet, driving the Rogh Rider Pinto, lost to Gray Ghost in the first round, defeated the Red Baron in the second and had a free run in the finals after Guthrie was unable to compete.

The Red Baron had a disappointing day as Kennedy was unable to keep the car on the race track surface and the Vega went into the dirt at the sides of the track each run.

At least one pro-stock car has entered next Sunday's "March Classic" event which features double money in all classes. Gates will open at 9 a.m. Sunday with eliminations at 2 p.m.

Split led to 2 top GC wrestling squads

"If you are going to win in any sport, you must have balance and depth, especially for dual meets. On the other hand, a few outstanding individuals can take a team a long way in tournaments."

Those were the words of Walt Whitaker, first-year coach of the new Granite City High School North Steeler wrestling team, at the start of the 1973-74 season.

Whitaker was speaking of wrestling in general and had no way of knowing that his philosophy would dominate both first year North and long established South mat teams during the season.

The Steelers ended their season with an 11-3 dual meet record, a second place finish in the Quincy Tournament, and third in both the South Holiday Tournament and district meet.

North matmen scored 637 team points against their enemies while allowing only 209 points in return, Carmel-Mundelein and Belleville East.

The GCHS South Warriors, coached by 24-year veteran William Schmitt, had a 19-2 season and allowed 221 points to be scored against them while South racked up 831 team points in dual meets.

Steelers end 5-3 year

The Steelerettes cagers of Granite City High School North ended their first-year varsity competition with a 5-3 record after downing the young ladies of Roxana 38-28 last week at Roxana.

"We were tied 9-9 in the first period," said Wanda Carroll of the North squad, "and Roxana held us scoreless for an 11-9 halftime score."

"We broke the game open in the third period when Carla Macios got her fast break going and racked up 10 points of her 15 game total."

North edged the enemy 26-21 in that quarter and added 12 points in the final period to put the victory on ice.

Irish Dancers entertain GCS Women

A troupe of Irish dancers and a corned beef and cabbage dinner set the stage for the traditional St. Patrick's Day meeting of the Granite City last week at the GCS Tuesday evening at the GCS General Office Building cafeteria.

Dinner tables were centered with arrangements of green flowers and the placemats and napkins were decorated with seasonal motifs.

A program of toe-tapping music and dancing was performed by the Irish Dancers of East St. Louis.

authentic Irish dances of the hard and soft shoe variety.

The eight young women, ranging in age from 8 years to early teens, were provided musical accompaniment by Police Captain Cornelius O'Sullivan of the East St. Louis Police Department. The police officer directs the troupe.

The youthful performers include Denise, Carol and Debbie Sydek, Debbie Jackson, Kathy Kelly, Coleen Huebner, Tammy Ives and Susan Nesley.

Mrs. Florence Portell served as program chairman, assisted by Jo Ann Bauer, Celestine Dotson, Joyce Humphrey and Alice Reeves. Mrs. Dorothy Rushing, president, conducted the business session, with reports given by Mrs. Jene Lybarger, secretary and Mrs. Nellie Dierker, treasurer. Mrs. Marjorie Burkhardt read the correspondence.

Library national archive for ragtime, jazz music

Lovejoy Library at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been designated as a National Ragtime and Jazz Archive by the SIU Board of Trustees.

A resolution adopted by the board Thursday, establishing the archives, calls attention to the unique role of the metropolitan St. Louis area, which has been "intimately related to the origination, development and perpetuation of ragtime and jazz in American cultural history."

Establishment of the archives formalizes a volunteer effort under way for several years involving students, faculty and staff interested in collecting music, recordings, films and videotapes related to the place of ragtime and jazz in American cultural history. A sizeable collection already is housed in Lovejoy Library.

In 1972, the informal SIUE group was offered a grant from the National Foundation on the Humanities, but could not accept it because formal institutional recognition of the archival effort did not exist.

No direct costs to the university are anticipated in formation of the national archives. Formal recognition will permit interested individuals, locally and nationally, to focus attention on ragtime and jazz material already existing at Lovejoy Library and further develop the collection.

Trustees were told that there are only two other formalized jazz centers in the U.S.

Tulane University maintains a center specializing only in New Orleans jazz. Rutgers University's center is national in scope, but concentrates on modern jazz.

Neither of the existing centers has attempted establishment of a coordinated videotape, sound tape and traditional phonograph record archive such as has already been started by volunteers at SIUE.

Valuation suit being prepared

Information is still being gathered to aid a suit seeking countywide reassessment, a gathering of 200 was held last week at the Nameoki Town Hall.

Nameoki Taxpayers for Countywide Uniform Taxation also are studying an appeal to the state on the Madison County assessing procedures followed in Nameoki Township, and will advise members how they may pay their taxes under protest.

It is contended that Nameoki valuations were raised by the county in a manner different from other townships, placing greater emphasis on current values and less on actual cost of property.

Daley-Walker clash approaching

By KEN WATSON
Springfield Bureau
Press-Record

A long-expected all-out political war between Gov. Daniel Walker and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley is fast approaching reality.

There are increasing predictions that before the year is over Illinois' two most powerful Democrats will be locked in the most bitter intra-party struggle since Gov. Henry Horner took on Chicago Mayor Edward J. Kelly and the powerful Kelly-Nash machine in the 1930s.

Relations between Walker and Daley have never been good. If feeling began back in the 1972 Democratic primary when Daley's organization supported Lt. Gov. Paul Simon for the gubernatorial nomination.

Although Walker upset Simon, Neil Hartigan, generally regarded as a Daley protege, wound up as lieutenant governor.

Friction between the governor and lieutenant governor was inevitable and frequently surfaces in public outbursts by one or the other. What now appears likely to trigger a final break between Walker and Daley is something more tangible than personalities. It's a matter of money.

The governor's recently announced budget is the catalyst.

Daley wasted little time in zeroing in on Walker's announced plan to limit the amount of state income tax revenue allocated to cities.

Chicago, giant among Illinois cities, would obviously be the biggest loser.

The mayor struck a hard bargain and Chicago's city government benefited immensely. The political repercussions of the income tax blew Olevis out of office in the 1972 election when he sought a second term.

Walker tried to change the income tax formula for local governments at the last regular legislative session, but failed. The odds are heavily against him accomplishing it at the 1974 session.

Not only does Daley still wield tremendous political clout in the legislature, but he has strong support on this issue from the Illinois Municipal League. The League includes heavy membership of Downstate Republican mayors who in turn have close connections with GOP legislators.

However, the biggest argument against any change of the local-allocation formula is the fear, cited by Daley as well as by Downstate mayors, that it would shift costs back on local governments and in some communities cause an increase in property taxes.

In a sidewalk interview at Chicago, Daley used strong language in criticizing the recommendation that the legislature change an existing law which fixes the local government share of income tax revenue at one-twelfth.

Walker wants to freeze the local share to the $103 million being allocated during this fiscal year. Under normal economic growth, it is estimated that this amount would climb to $114 million in fiscal 1975.

The locals, government bodies, then, would be out some $11 million.

"That would be like changing the rules in the middle of a ball game," Daley told reporters. "It would be weighing on the original agreement."

In addition to the anti-Walker tone, the Daley comment was significant in that it constituted a virtual public acknowledgment of what has long been taken for granted at the Statehouse.

This is that there was clearly a deal between Daley and Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, which brought about enactment of the Illinois income tax law in 1969. Not enough Ogilvie out of office in the 1972 election when he sought a second term.

Walker tried to change the income tax formula for local governments at the last regular legislative session, but failed. The odds are heavily against him accomplishing it at the 1974 session.

Not only does Daley still wield tremendous political clout in the legislature, but he has strong support on this issue from the Illinois Municipal League. The League includes heavy membership of Downstate Republican mayors who in turn have close connections with GOP legislators.

However, the biggest argument against any change of the local-allocation formula is the fear, cited by Daley as well as by Downstate mayors, that it would shift costs back on local governments and in some communities cause an increase in property taxes.

Walker insists this need not be the case, but raising of the issue is considered political dynamite.

Even the most loyal administration Democrats would cringe at having that issue raised against them in an election year.

Not only is Daley unhappy with Walker about the income tax formula, but he is also unhappy about the amount of state school aid planned for Chicago.

Chicago School Supt. James F. Redmond has attacked allotments proposed by State Instruction Supt. Michael J. Bakalis and accepted by Walker, as inadequate to meet the needs of Chicago schools.

The mayor in a recent speech charged in strong language that Chicago's schools are being short-changed financially and that much more money must be forthcoming from the state if further troubles are to be avoided.

Daley, who frequently appears before legislative hearings, will be bringing his anti-Walker offensive to Springfield during the 1974 legislative session. Fireworks

Fuel was added to the fire last week when there were disclosures that Daley sons had obtained state insurance licenses although missing many of the questions on the examination. Gov. Walker discussed the issue Tuesday and called for a review of state licensing procedures.

Booklet on retarded infants

A free booklet for parents of mentally retarded infants and pre-school children is being presented to parents of children enrolled in either of the two Pre-School Centers sponsored by the Madison County Association for Retarded Children.

The booklet, "Make the Most of Your Baby," is the first publication by the National Association for Retarded Citizens using money donated by the Civitan Clubs of North America. The two-year grant calls for at least six such booklets to be published to help answer the hundreds of inquiries NARC receives each month from persons seeking information on some aspect of mental retardation.

"Make the Most of Your Baby" was written by Mrs. June Mather of Wilton, Conn. from her own personal standpoint as the mother of a mentally retarded child. It also reflects her more than 20 years in the field of mental retardation. NARC will have subsequent publications available for parents who are members of the association.

Mrs. Mather's thesis is that children learn from play. "Make the Most of Your Baby" tells how parents can provide meaningful play experiences for their mentally retarded infant by being aware of the sequential nature of early childhood development. Mrs. Mather also stresses that time and patience are needed in working with the mentally retarded child.

Copies of the booklet may be obtained by request from the MCARC office after all parents of children enrolled in Pre-School have been supplied. If there are a significant number of requests, the association will order more copies and a small charge will be made to non-member parents.

U.S. joins move on coke methods here

Granite City Steel has been notified by the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency that it is not meeting a required timetable for construction of improvements at its coke oven facilities. In response, a company spokesman said the requirements are "unrealistic and just impossible to meet."

The federal EPA is attempting to enforce a ruling by the Illinois Pollution Control Board that all coke ovens in the state must have enclosed pushing and quenching operations by Dec. 31, 1974.

"The IPCB was under a mistaken impression," said the GC Steel spokesman, "that such equipment was available. The IPCB assumption is incorrect."

No one has such equipment and no one can have it comply with the deadline. A minimum of 24 to 30 months would be required to install such equipment," he added.

The local steel company had a "go-round" with the state EPA two years ago, ending—after several months of hearings—in an agreement for the company to install more than $4 million worth of pollution controls. "We are on schedule for those improvements," the spokesman said.

Developments this week marked the first time the federal EPA has stepped into the picture.

"The federal EPA wants an interim schedule which will assure we meet the IPCB deadline. Either they will have to realize we are in an impossible situation or we will have to go into litigation again, this time against the federal EPA," the spokesman concluded.

Miss Jodean McDonough, bride of Jerry Cooke

The wedding of Miss Jodean L. McDonough, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. McDonough, 500 Ohio St., South Roxana, and Jerry M. Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen G. Cooke, 423 Lake Drive, was solemnized Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church in Roxana.

Officiating at the 7 o'clock double ring ceremony was the Rev. Dwight Duer. Preceding the bride down the white carpeted aisle was the maid of honor, Miss Jayme McDonough, a sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Vikki Reeves, Miss Lynn Lakes, the bride's cousin and Miss Margie Cooke, a sister of the groom.

Their gowns were designed with fitted bodices of flocked sheer polyester and featured long, full sleeves with wide cuffs, mandarin collars and high rise waistlines.

Oversize ribbon detailed the waist and accented the plain sheer polyester skirts. A gathered flounce of flocked fabric encircled the hem. The maid of honor was attired in pink and the bridesmaids selected maize, red and green colors. All wore white, ripple brimmed picture hats, banded with matching color ribbon and silver stars, and carried a nosegay of carnations, daisies and baby breath.

For her wedding, the former Miss McDonough chose a gown of white sateen over chrome-plated tulle, lavishly appliqued with Venetian lace. Long, full sleeves with wide cuffs, featuring an over-the-hand ruffle, were set into a molded bodice made with a high mandarin collar of tiny rows of lace.

Lace motifs accented the controlled skirt created with a very deep gathered flounce that extended into a cathedral length train.

Her cathedral veil of nylon illusion was held in place with a matching lace headpiece and she carried a colonial bouquet of white gladiolus and bridal pink roses, white daisy, pom-poms, white Jack Frost roses, stephanotis and baby breath.

The groom chose his brother, Mark Cooke as best man. Larry Knox, Marion Stawar, Richard Asadarian, Bob Zaruba, Mike Hagopian and Tom Niebur completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received by the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Cooke at a reception given at Roxana in Roxana.

The bride graduated in 1969 from Roxana High School and will receive a bachelor degree in elementary education in June at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

She is a member of Alpha Sigma Tau and is employed in the math office at SIUE.

Mr. Cooke was graduated from Granite City High School in 1969 and earned his bachelor's degree in geography this year. He works at Kozzy's Market and is a member of Delta Chi.

Bloodmobile visit here Friday

Church Women United and the American Red Cross will again sponsor a bloodmobile visit Friday at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, according to Mrs. Helen Baran, chairman of the Church Women United Blood Program.

Churchwomen from 10 area churches will volunteer their services on the day of the mobile visit with about 100 donors expected to donate blood that day.

The Church Blood Program is designed to cover all persons in the participating church if 25 per cent of the church families donate blood.

Mrs. Baran said the December visits were very successful and accounted for the major part of the coverage for 10 area churches. St. Elizabeth Church cafeteria was the location of the December visits.

Mrs. Baran stressed that anyone may come to the Central Christian Church between the hours of 2 and 6:45 p.m. and donate blood under an individual donor plan covering their families.

By the donation of one unit of blood per family, parents, grandparents, grandparents-in-law are covered for blood needs for one year.

Mrs. Baran reported that church chairwomen are now calling all church members asking for appointments for Friday's visit. Further in-

The blue ribbon trim accented the front of the straight skirt and encircled the short puff sleeves.

She wore a Juliet headpiece to secure a shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations centered with a corsage.

Government economy requires skill

To the Editor:

I will continue to lead the fight to retain existing industry in Nameoki Township.

As early as May 26, 1973, at a township meeting, a motion was carried to direct the township attorney, William Schooley, to take whatever action was necessary to block annexation of the Cargill property to Granite City because it was not contiguous to city limits.

On June 6, 1973, Schooley responded to a letter from Nameoki Township stating that the land to be annexed to the City of Granite City was contiguous but separated by the railroad right-of-way of the Alton & Southern Railroad.

Subsequently, the Alton & Southern Right-of-way was annexed, and then the Cargill property followed within a few days, becoming a part of Granite City.

It is unfortunate that in times like these — when integrity in government and credibility of elected officials are issues, and when the electorate has access to its chosen representatives, as epitomized by the township form of government — some candidates for public office deliberately omit relevant facts, or distort the truth on issues as vital as taxes and the expansion of the county.

Residents of Madison County have seen the elevator on the Cargill property since the mid 1950s and, obviously, there is nothing I could do to make a residential subdivision in that area.

Further, it is a fact of life that township like Nameoki which are sandwiched between municipalities are disappearing by way of annexation and the lure of sewers, police protection, park districts and the like.

The place to look for relief on this county is to the state legislature.

If my opponent is really interested in tax relief, he would recognize that term like "broaden the tax base" means diversifying the tax payers, i.e., industry and residential property.

"Tax relief" means fair and equitable tax treatment for all the citizens, and then the township form of government — some candidates for public office an honest day's work for an honest day's pay."

I also mean the judicious use of state and county patronage positions to collect talented people to perform specialized and necessary tasks, rather than to provide paychecks for politicians as pet shop inspectors.

Public office is synonymous with public service.

I have always kept my job in private industry and worked evenings and midnights because I recognize that the office of Nameoki Township supervisor is not a sinecure, and availability for committee work and to my constituency is a necessity.

Truth, service and fair and honest representation are most important to me.

An old-timer once told me, in my first campaign, "Right's right and wrong's wrong," and "Tell it like it is."

I have tried to follow that advice; the people of this township are entitled to it.

LOUIS WHITSELL
Nameoki Township Supervisor
Candidate for re-election to Madison County Board, District 26

Against paying Chouteau tax collector

To the Editor:

As I read the front page article in the Press-Record Feb. 26 about Chouteau Township tax waste, I was under the impression that the tax collection expense for 1972 was to be reimbursed by Madison County.

In 1973, no reimbursement was to be made because the county would collect the taxes.

Also, in 1973 the township tax collector could be elected — but under the new Constitution he could no longer receive as compensation a percentage of the taxes he collected.

Now, Chouteau Township has come up with a flat salary for the collector to do a three-month job that the county collector would do. Who set the guideline for such a salary?

This situation does not appear to be the good, sound government that our leaders boast of.

MITCHELL RESIDENT

Board reinstates eight students

One high school student and seven Dunbar elementary students were reinstated in the Madison Board of Education in a special meeting last week.

On the Republican ballot, there is only one candidate each for county clerk, county treasurer and sheriff, and no candidate for superintendent of the educational service region. Four candidates are in the field for one nomination as state representative of the 56th legislative district.

The Democrats have one candidate each for two circuit judge vacancies, and two candidates in a race for a third vacancy. The Republicans have no candidates for these offices.

In the battle for County Board memberships — all on the Democratic ticket — there is opposition for three of the five Quad-City seats subject to nomination in tomorrow's balloting.

Among these is a three-way fight in District 26 (Nameo Township) where incumbent Board Member Louis E. Whitsell (who also is township supervisor) is opposed by Edgar Patrick, former town collector, and Bill Gibbons, a welder at Granite City Steel who is seeking elective office for the first time.

A three-way battle also has been waged in District 16 (Chouteau Township) where incumbent Albert Doerr, South Roxana, is opposed by Walter "Dick" Sparks, now township supervisor, and William Thoeke, a precinct committeeman and businessman. Sparks is a former County Board member.

In district 21, incumbent Board Member Carl Buehler is opposed by Daniel J. Partney in the bid for that Granite City board seat. Incumbent William Webb is unopposed in Granite City district 19 and Nelson Hagnauer, incumbent board member of District 20, is unopposed for re-election. Hagnauer is now chairman of the County Board.

At the top of the Democratic ballot, Adalia E. Stevenson III is seeking re-election as U.S. Senator of Illinois, opposed by W. Dakin Williams of Collinsville.

Alan Dixon, incumbent state treasurer, is unopposed in his bid for re-nomination at the state level, who has served in Congress since 1944, has one opponent, William Ray B. deaux, of East Alton, who is making his first bid for public office in the 23rd district race.

Seeking election on the Democratic ballot as state central committeeman are Alvin G. Fields Sr. of East St. Louis, incumbent; James F. Chapman of Collinsville, former Madison County recorder of deeds; Dick Allen, Granite City attorney, and Carolyn Chapman, Belleville.

The outstanding campaign in the Democratic party is that for state representative in which 11 candidates are seeking two nominations in the 56th legislative district. The district includes Granite City, Venice, Nameoki, Chouteau, Alton, Godfrey, Hannibal, O'Fallon, Fort Russell, Edwardsville and part of Wood River Townships. Incumbent State Rep. George of Granite City is considered a forerunner in the field as a candidate for re-election, but the retirement this year of verteran State Rep. Leland J. Kennedy of Alton has thrown the race open for the second seat.

Other legislative candidates are Sam P. Drenovac of Granite City; Joe E. Lucio, Edwardsville; Ted Bennett, Edwardsville; Dan O'Neill, Alton; Donald D. Dreith, Alton; Lloyd H. McCune, Godfrey; Steve Maragides, Madison; Wendell Durr, Edwardsville; David Partney, Granite City, and Carmen Deist Kerr, Bethalto.

In the county primary, the nomination of a Democratic county clerk has attracted wide political attention with three candidates in the race. Primary opposition is between Miss Evelyn Bowles of Edwardsville, now chief deputy county clerk, and Don Dee Cruise, Granite City Township assessor. The third candidate is Robert Upton, Belleville.

Incumbent County Treasurer George Musso is opposed in his bid for re-nomination by Michael S. Henkens of Edwardsville. A three-way campaign is being waged for nomination as sheriff. Incumbent Sheriff John Macraus of Madison is seeking re-election, opposed by Thomas C. Hammond of Venice and William R. Kirkpatrick of Bethalto.

Vasil Eftimoff of Granite City and Harold "Gene" Briggs of Nameoki Township, are seeking the nomination as superintendent of the educational service region.

There is no opposition to the nomination of John M. Karns Jr. of Belleville for one Fifth District appellate court judgeship vacancy, but three candidates are in a race to fill one additional judicial post in the Fifth District. They are Robert B. Maucker of Godfrey, Charles E. Jones of McLean-shore and Von Allan Carlisle of Trenton.

Circuit Judges John Gitchoff and Moses W. Harrison are unopposed for re-nomination to two circuit judgeships in the Third Judicial Circuit. A two-way race is on the ballot, however, for a third judicial post. The candidates are Victor Mosele, an incumbent circuit judge, and William Johnson, an associate judge.

Contests at the top of the Republican ballot are those for United States Senator, in which George Burditt of LaGrange is opposed by Lar (America First) Daly, of Chicago, and for state treasurer, in which Harry Page, Springfield, is opposed by Mrs. Jeannette Mullen of Barrington.

Four candidates are in the race for two state representative posts on the Republican ballot. Robert J. Walters, incumbent of Alton, is seeking re-election. The other candidates are Everett G. Steele, Glen Carbon; Gerald B. Cohn, Bethalto, and Ralph Astorian of Granite City.

William D. Stiehl of Belleville is unopposed for election as state central committeeman.

Four county office nominations, all unopposed, are Donald W. Ende, Bethalto, county clerk; Carol Frederick, East Alton, county treasurer, and Robert J. Urban, Troy, sheriff. There is no candidate for superintendent of the educational service region on the Republican ballot, which also is without candidates for the three judicial vacancies of the third circuit.

voting machines in the county's 197 precincts, except for the selection of County Board members.

Voting machines and election supplies have been delivered to all precincts, including the 61 in Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau Townships. Pre-election developments have included:

There is speculation that Vasil Eftimoff may receive Venice area backing despite the fact that his opponent for county education superintendent was endorsed by the County Democratic Committee headed by Walter "Dick" Simmons of Venice.

Alderman Walter F. Norn is being assailed for a circular criticizing State Rep. Horace Calvo as promising but not producing a railroad crossing overpass for auto traffic. Those favoring Calvo say he is working for but has not promised a traffic overpass.

A canvass by Ralph Astorian, seeking a Republican state representative nomination, shows voters heavily favoring the death penalty, no-fault insurance and divorce laws, and replacing the East Side Levee Board, divided on abortion laws and women's equal rights, and against the St. Louis Area Council of Governments proposal, stricter obscenity laws and buses for enrollment.

Gov. Dan Walker endorsed Dan O'Neill of Alton for state representative; the governor earlier endorsed Rep. Horace Calvo for the other position.

Ralph L. Elliott, a Democratic committeeman candidate in Granite City Precinct 23, said he endorses Eftimoff for superintendent, David Partney for representative and William Johnson for circuit judge but not the others included in a weekend mailing.

Commenting on the same mailing in Precinct 23, Mrs. Thomas Boker said she is limiting her endorsement to Elliott.

quench car "fogging" device installed nearly a year ago under the state-approved program.

The fogging system already has reduced coke pushing associated emissions significantly, Cairns said.

It consists of a series of high-pressure sprays which blanket the surface of the quench car with water, reducing emissions during pushing operations and during transit to the coke quench tower.

Dr. Cairns said a new automatic coke oven coal charging system—the final and largest device in the state-approved program—has been constructed and the manufacturer, Koppers Co., is conducting breaking-in exercises in the highly complex equipment.

The coal charging system, considered to be the most advanced in the world, is designed to significantly reduce emissions that can occur when pulverized low sulfur coal is charged into the top of the 137 coke ovens, he related.

The second largest item in the state-approved program, a high-efficiency Venturi scrubber system, has practically eliminated the familiar red plume from the main windbox of the CCS sinter plant.

Dr. Cairns said, adding that the exhaust has been tested by an independent laboratory and is in full compliance with state emission regulations.

program includes a high-efficiency bag house cleaner unit in the sinter plant breaker exhaust, a baffle system to remove steam-borne contaminants at the coke quench tower and a "bleeder-burner" stack to neutralize excess blast furnace gas into harmless carbon dioxide.

All of these devices have been working satisfactorily for more than a year, he told the Press-Record.

The 30-month state-approved program is the result of a legal pact signed by Granite City Steel, the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Attorney General William J. Scott, and subsequently approved by the State Pollution Control Board in April 1972.

Girl Scouts visit Colonnades

Junior Girl Scout Troop 492, sponsored by the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary Unit 53, in conjunction with "Girl Scout Week" performed a community service project by visiting the Colonnades Nursing Home Thursday afternoon. The troop members, accompanied by Mrs. Verna Kidman, visited with Mrs. Cynthia Householder, whom they adopted as a "grandmother" three years ago and with Frank Johnson and Fred Collison, who they adopted this year as "grandfathers."

Mrs. Linda Polette, a Cadet troop leader, also accompanied the group to the nursing home. Troop 492 primarily is interested in community service, the leaders said. During the last three years, members have donated money to a child who was severely burned; purchased equipment for Wilson School's special education students; prepared food baskets for the elderly at Christmas and visited the Hitz Home for the Elderly in Alhambra.

While guests at the Hitz Home, the Girl Scouts purchased craft items created by the residents for gifts.

Those taking part in Thursday's trip were Marty Caudron, Rhonda Crouch, Carolyn Kidman, Janet Nunes, Christy Peach, Sharon Werner, Beth Smith and Patty Gerstner.

The wedding of Mrs. Louis Maude McCleese, 2209a Cleveland Blvd., and Louis Mehl, 2560 Cleveland Blvd., took place on March 1 at the First United Presbyterian Church, Granite City.

Officiating at the 6 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. David Maxton.

Serving as attendants were James and Hazel Ridings. The bride is a daughter of Don Smith, 234 Seaton Drive, Russell, Ky. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mehl, reside at 2560 Cleveland Blvd.

Following a wedding trip to Ashland, Ky., North Carolina and Florida, the newly married couple is residing in Granite City.

The former Mrs. McCleese is employed by The Catering at Granite City Steel Co. cafeteria.

Illinois Jaycees to build camp

Illinois Jaycee President Bob Sturgeon today proclaimed the month of March as "Jaycee Jelly Month" during which local Jaycees will sell jelly for $1 per jar to raise a total of $130,000 to establish a children's camp.

Owen Ross, president of the Granite City Jaycees, said the local club will sell the jelly all day Saturday at local shopping centers and in the downtown area. Leroy Hoffman was named chairman of the local sale.

Sturgeon said the project is the Jaycees' first attempt to establish a meaningful program to benefit both mentally and physically retarded children. Businessmen and community organizations in various parts of Illinois have agreed to help the Jaycees raise the $130,000 in the next four months, the Illinois Jaycee officer advised. The money will be spent for construction of a summer camp

'Hypnosis' is topic of Madison Literary

"The Value of Hypnosis" was the subject of a program presented by the Rev. Christopher Lyle at a meeting of the Madison Literary Club in the home of Mrs. Duff McBrian. The Rev. Lyle, who has served as minister of the Christian Church in Madison, spoke of the value of hypnosis from a medical viewpoint, as well as its significance in counseling. At the present time he is enrolled in a class at Deaconess Hospital, St. Louis. Mrs. McBrian assisted by her daughter, Margaret, served refreshments from a table decorated in St. Patrick's Day colors.

Business Women to hear newsmen

Mrs. Pauline Weir, public relations chairman for the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, today announced that Bob Baker, station manager for Radio Station WGNU, will be guest speaker at the club's dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at Charlie's Restaurant.

Plans for the event were completed at an executive board meeting last week at the East Side Levee Board office. Reservations can be made by calling Marian Avedisian, 877-2309, Ann Graklanoff, 877-6327, or Hordeksy, 877-2893.

A member of Granite City's oldest families, dating back to 1892, Baker's real name is Albert L. Stevens Jr. He uses the broadcast name of "Bob Baker" to avoid conflict with the Stevens' name, widely known in area political circles for many years, the station manager said.

He attended local schools, acted in school and church plays and sang in choral groups at church, school and the YMCA. Baker was an amateur content on Radio Station KMOX in 1940 and during World War II entertained servicemen in the area with the "KMOX entertainers."

Baker became one of the area's first widely-known disc jockeys when featured on WTMV, originating from the Broadview Hotel in East St. Louis. The station later changed its call letters to WAWV and WBBR. He joined the WGNU staff in January 1962, one month after the station began operations.

He has served as newsmen and disc jockey and presently is heard on the air from 11 a.m.

until 3 p.m. and co-host's Granite City Steel's "Party Line" with Chuck Norman, WGNU owner and general manager.

The guest speaker is married, has one son and resides in Granite City. He holds membership in Niedringhaus United Methodist Church and the Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities.

BPM members attending the planning meeting included Mrs.

Balancing tomorrow merits, needs participation by all eligible voters

"Politics is not a dirty business unless we allow it to become. It is rather a most serious business which has need of the most high-minded and the most generous hearted among us."

"Politics should be a joyous, dedicated effort toward man's advancement on earth, just as religion is a glorious effort toward bringing final, happy fulfillment in eternity."

"Moral strength must arm the political leaders of the future if we are to keep the country free and, by example, set the world free."

This part of the preface to a book by Jim Farley on the life of Al Smith underscores the fact that the quality and effectiveness of political and governmental processes are determined to a large degree by the ability, integrity and effort of those who serve in public office and by the alertness and interest of the citizenry.

There has been speculation that tomorrow's primary election turnout will be small, partly due to citizens being "turned off" by revelations of misconduct by officials in Washington and Springfield.

Such a decision to "sit out" the election would be self-defeating because it could only contribute to further governmental inefficiency and further loss of public confidence.

For the sake of good government—one of the highest and worthiest of all possible causes in our freedom-loving democracy—all eligible voters are being encouraged to cast a ballot in either the Democratic or Republican primary voting Tuesday.

The privilege and duty to vote deserves inclusion in everyone's schedule tomorrow, no matter how busy that schedule may be.

Madison County voting places will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Patrick vigilant, fair and dedicated

To the Editor: The Democrats for Patrick Committee was formed by a group of ordinary citizens, each with a strong desire to contribute to the election of an individual as their representative on the County Board, District 26, whom they believe will represent them to the best of his ability.

They believe they have found this person; he is Edgar "Pat" Patrick.

They have found Pat to be a man sincere in his desire to serve the public as a honest man, educated and qualified to fill the job of County Board member.

Mr. Patrick has served this community as Nameoki Township tax collector. He can speak with authority on tax procedures.

He is aware of unnecessary expenditures. He is aware of many of the "gimmicks" used by some to use tax money to their own advantage.

Edgar "Pat" Patrick is not a newcomer to Nameoki Township. He has lived here for the past 26 years.

He has his ample time to observe the needs of the community and to know when the people have not had adequate representation.

The members of the Democrats for Patrick Committee believe this is important. Many things are lost to the community through the negligence on the part of their elected representatives.

Many commit acts of omission that can be just as damaging to the community—sometimes more so than acts of commission.

One recent example is the annexation of the Cargill plant to the City of Granite City. This plant is physically located in the heart of Nameoki Township, but through strip annexation, became a tax base for Granite City.

What this amounts to, in plain language, is that Nameoki Township gets the smell, the dirt and the truck traffic while someone else gets the tax revenue. This is but one strong example of an act of omission.

Many members of the Democrats for Patrick Committee became members because they learned the hard way just what "politics" really means. They became disillusioned with "politics" when they became aware that "political deals" and "set up meetings" are a reality.

They didn't like what they saw. They saw too many "politicians" selling out their trust to further their own ambitions.

Some political practices have been just a little too much to swallow. Politics should not be underhanded and shady. Politics should be aboveboard and fair.

We believe in giving the voter a fair shake. Let him elect his representatives on facts, not on campaign promises.

If a man hasn't got it in him to be elected on his own merits, he should at least give the voter a fair deal and refrain from unethical activities.

We have come to the conclusion that the candidates that appear on this list are the Democrats for Patrick Committee.

DONALD C. REA
Chairman,
Democrats for Patrick Committee

Incumbent is a hard-working official

To the Editor: What are the facts? Mr. Patrick has aired distorted facts about his opponent concerning compensation, but has said nothing known about himself.

He published salary figures for Mr. Whitsell which covered a 12-month period in an attempt to make people overlook the period covered and think it was an annual salary.

The fact remains that the salary he received from the township was determined by the voters (the people) at the annual meeting prior to his taking office. His compensation from the county is determined by the County Board.

If Mr. Patrick wants to lay bare the facts, why hasn't he told you he received $450 per month salary as a state-appointed pet shop inspector, plus he receives $25 per day as a daily expense allowance.

In addition to this, besides his private business ventures, he is a member of the Granite Beach Water District and this is not on a voluntary basis.

If citizens are to make a fair evaluation, they should have all the facts. If there is any evaluation made, compensation seems to be the weakest of issues, since no matter how elected the compensation will be the same.

There can be no doubt in anyone's mind that Lou Whitsell is the hardest-working County Board member Nameoki Township has ever had. He doesn't reappear just before election as most candidates do; his efforts are made known year-round.

The other candidate who has campaigned on paying for his ads from his welder pay, and who proposes to coordinate all the activities of the County Board member effectively, has related various facts which do not even pertain to the job he is seeking.

To make an intelligent choice, look at the job that has been done and forget the rhetoric from the candidates that appear three or four weeks prior to an election.

Don Rea, campaign manager for Patrick, should at least check into some of the garbage that they have been putting out, to see if there was any truth to it.

As a resident of Pontoon Beach, I feel that if Don Rea, trustee of the village, would speak as hard for the betterment of the village as he has to discredit the County Board member, we could see a lot of improvements in our streets, better drainage, and improve the image of our community.

Voters, you be the judge. When did Lou Whitsell's opponents' concern become so much for township and county? Neither one has attended a County Board or Nameoki Township meeting since Lou Whitsell has been in office.

Whitsell displays concern for people

To the Editor: For the past two months, I've noticed Louis Whitsell is the center target on the things that he didn't do—or what he did was wrong—since holding office as County Board member.

A statement was made that the only time Lou is in the paper is 60 to 90 days before election. Where have they been?

I'm tired of all this, and decided it's time to speak out for Lou.

I've known Lou for only 3½ years, but in those few years, for the first time in my life, I've seen a man who really cares for the people he has been chosen to serve, and also those who are not even in his district or township.

Anytime anyone has called on him, Lou has been there. He is a man of his word and helps in every way that he can.

He never passes the answer, he can't be any further away from the door than he is, and he doesn't stop there but continues until he completes what he has set out to do.

I know an elderly lady who lives in Chouteau Township, which is not Lou's district or township. Her home was destroyed by last year's flood and she wanted to move to a mobile home onto her property, but she had no money.

I mentioned the matter to Lou and in return he went to Edwardsville and spoke on her behalf. The lady got her permit and is now settled into her new home and very happy.

What did he have to gain? Money? Power? No. Only the satisfaction that someone was in need—and was helped and not forgotten.

Yes, Lou is my friend and he's the public's friend, too. He is great for our county and he's just for something that very few politicians have, concern for the people, with their interest in money.

Questions views of board candidate

To the Editor: The public should be informed of the background of public officials.

I do not live in County Board District 26 but after a County Board member is elected there will be someone representing me as well as everyone in this county. Mr. Patrick made a statement in the Press-Record that he is "strongly opposed to abuse of the system whereby officials can earn large sums and leave each taxpayer wondering what he has received for his money."

I wonder if Mr. Patrick was doing his job in 1968. He was elected as business agent for the local Bartenders Union, and deprived me of my membership after my husband passed away. Was this a small example of favoritism to some and not equality to all, as well as abuse of the system?

One of my employees was behind in her dues so Mr. Patrick allowed me to pay one month and she was back to work without renewal or suspension. Several months later another employee was behind five months and he allowed me to pay one month's dues to stay in the union, which was fine with me.

In February 1967, Mr. Patrick came in to collect my regular dues, but due to my husband being hospitalized, I told him I could not pay until the next week. He said that would be fine and he would come back.

I told him not to let my husband's insurance expire because he was dying, and he said, "Don't worry."

I then spent long hours with my husband in the hospital and forgot all about the union dues. In April, I remembered the insurance and called Mr. Patrick to tell him I would catch up with my union dues, because my husband was dying. He said, "I closed out your husband's insurance last March 1."

My husband died in May. Mr. Patrick was in his legal rights, but in the past, as I have stated, he has treated others differently, even though this was not strictly within the rules.

I feel that if he would treat one job in this way he would do the same to the taxpayers. I certainly don't want him to legislate my tax money.

Seniority aids service by Walters

To the Editor: A candidate in the March 19 Republican primary election and am seeking a third term as state representative from the 56th District.

The same as anywhere else, seniority is important. In the General Assembly at Springfield, it is almost essential because a new legislator spends most of his term learning the ropes.

Only through experience can a representative recognize the needs of his constituents and have the greatest impact on all the citizens of his district. Only through experience can he feel the pulse and needs of all the citizens of his district.

One way to sum up the importance of seniority is by pointing out that I have been appointed by the Speaker of the House to three principal committees and just recently to three important commissions. Probably the biggest issue in Springfield is the Republican versus Democrat, but rather Chicago and Cook County.

I'm proud that my record shows that I have not wavered in my support of Downstate Illinois. I am the only legislator in the 56th district who maintains a full-time office in his district.

One of the main reasons for this is to provide a full-time service to the people in my district who encounter problems with state agencies and need help.

My office receives numerous calls daily—and I'm glad that I do. This is the barometer by which I can measure the problems and needs of the citizens and do whatever is in my power to serve them properly.

I am pleased by the endorsement I have received to run for a third term. I am interested and concerned with the well-being of all the people of my district.

I am not obligated to any special interest groups or organizations, and that's why I can say with determination that I owe my allegiance to all, not to a few.

If I am successful in the primary and again in the general election, I will continue to exert my best effort and apply all my legislative experience toward seeing that the majority is represented to the fullest extent possible.

Patrick statement

By EDGAR "PAT" PATRICK

District 26
County Board Member

In the last issue of the Press-Record I stated that I shall make no further statements or charges against my opponents in a paper when there is no time to answer them.

However, due to a backlog of material which the Press-Record feels it is obligated to publish, they have, in all fairness, made this material available to both me and my opponents. I am sorry that I cannot stand firmly by my commitment. Anything worthy of being said in this campaign could have been said before now.

I make no charges or comments concerning my opponents, nor will I honor any made against myself by replying.

The only statement I have concerning these Forum letters is that I believe the public is entitled to know the identity of those who wrote them.

Aside from my opponent's letter, one was written by a defeated candidate for mayor of Pontoon Beach who had been supported by Louis Whitsell.

This man is also a former employee of Nameoki Township; his wife is presently employed by Nameoki Township and whose wife is presently on the Nameoki Township payroll.

The third letter was written by the proprietor of the Little Dover Inn tavern in Granite City.

I appreciate this effort by the Press-Record to do its job with equality and fairness.

Whitsell statement

By LOUIS WHITSELL

District 26
County Board Member

Letters from Donald Rea—letters which appeared in this paper and letters that were mailed to most of the residents—were designed to discredit me by twisting the facts.

Each precinct of District 26 received a different letter designed to blame me for local problems that the County Board has nothing to do with, or to place in each resident's mind that their particular area is a neglected area because of the County Board.

They accuse me of acts of omission because Granite City chose to annex the Cargill grainery, when in fact we took every legal step possible to stop it.

They accuse me of inaction because the local fire department, garbage collection and village government, while in the same letter they reprimand me for not interfering with the local police department.

The fact is that all of these local problems are not the faults of the office we are seeking, but they make good rhetoric at the time of election.

Furthermore, the very people who make these accusations are the officials of the Village of Pontoon Beach, who are elected to take care of streets, dog problems, police protection, drainage, garbage collection, etc.—Donald Rea and Raymond Gaudette, who are helping to discredit my own political abilities.

The Press-Record endorsed me for being a "hard-working County Board member" who gets the job done. I will continue to serve the people as a county legislator with honesty, perseverance and integrity.

I need votes and support tomorrow.

Group proposing health department for county

A meeting is planned for Thursday in connection with efforts to form a county health department for Madison County.

Mrs. Jane Altes, director of the Center for Urban and Environmental Research and Services (CUERS) at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, says an ad hoc committee will elect a permanent steering committee to work toward the goal of a county health department.

The March 21 meeting will be held in Edwardsville. Arthur Sampson of Edwardsville is chairman of the ad hoc group.

Staff members of CUERS convened an initial planning meeting in Edwardsville this month, 130 attending to represent governmental units, service and civic organizations and interested citizens.

Included were three members of the Madison County Board—Robert Ford of Wood River and Mrs. Sibyl H. Bellis and James E. Greene, both of East Alton.

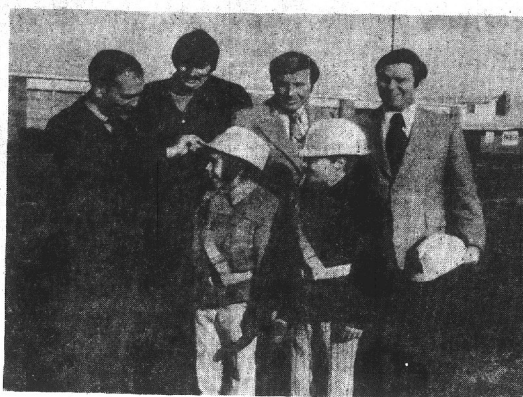

Ford told of past efforts to establish a county health department and answered questions from the audience.

Mrs. Jennell Moore, regional health services coordinator for the Illinois Department of Public Health, explained the services and facilities provided by a county health department and also answered questions from the audience.

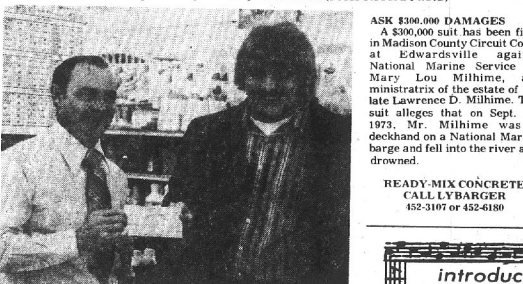

The ad hoc committee was formed from the group, with Sampson named chairman.

Other members of the committee include: Floyd Gallier and Jane Pinnell, both of Alton; Flora Digirolo and Dottie Snodgrass, both of Collinsville; Armeta C. Voss and James E. Greene, both of East Alton; Winston Brown and Mary L. Freeman, both of Edwardsville; Irma Henry, Glen Carbon; Ruth Brave, Granite City; Pat Zitta, Highland; William Galthright Jr., Madison; Robert L. Ford Jr., Wood River; and Dr. Morton Kirsch, SIUE Health Service.

Mrs. Altes said staff members of CUERS will serve as information consultants to the group.

Proceed with plans for treatment training area

Development of plans and specifications for a proposed $2 million advanced waste treatment operators training facility at SIUE was approved Thursday by the SIUE Board.

Funds for the project will come from a $2 million grant from the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. The IEPA will use proceeds from an anti-pollution bond issue to make the grant.

Since 1967, SIUE has been sponsoring a sewage treatment plant operators' institute through the School of Science and Technology. These non-credit programs have helped upgrade the skills of sewage and water plant operators throughout Southern Illinois.

Funding has come from the federal government and the IEPA.

Gov. Dan Walker announced last Oct. 24 that a $2 million grant would be made to SIUE for the new training facilities.

When the facilities are completed, SIUE will be able to expand existing programs and offer a broader range of waste water treatment instruction on a non-credit basis.

The larger store will carry a fuller line of shoes, more stereo equipment, records and tape recordings and school supplies. The new store also is conducting business more hours per week than before the move.

Store hours begin at 9 a.m. Monday through Saturday. Mondays and Fridays it will close at 8:30 p.m. and Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the store will close at 5:30 p.m. It will remain closed Sundays.

Expand dental school clinic

Architects will be retained by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for renovation of three buildings at the School of Dental Medicine. The STU Board on Thursday authorized the administration to proceed with renovation and the retention of architectural assistants.

The renovation will be paid for from a $179,574 grant from the National Institute of Health. It is the second received by SIUE to be used as "start-up" money for the dental program. The funds must be encumbered by late June.

A previous NIH grant of $240,000 also was used to make improvements in buildings at the Alton center. These improvements are now substantially completed.

The latest action will permit renovation of the current administration building to transform it into a supplemental dental clinic with eight or nine chair stations. Space in the new clinic now in operation will be expanded by adding eight or nine chairs. A third building will be renovated to provide additional office space.

Rotary sees slides of tank car blast

Slides of the 1970 tank car explosion in Crescent City, Ill., were shown by Rotarian Jerry Maeras at last week's meeting of the Madison Rotary Club at the Madison Recreation Center. A 16-car derailment caused 13 of the cars filled with propane gas to explode, sending a mushroom ball of fire 850 feet in the air. The flame was 350 feet wide.

According to Maeras many people were reluctant to move from the area despite debris being blown 1,750 feet from the blast.

Rotary President Wade Jones displayed the 50th Anniversary flag of the Granite City Rotary Club that was given to the Madison Club. Rotarian Alex Markuly will present the program next week.

'Administering federal programs' with liquor purchases factor in Dr. Derge's resignation

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees on Thursday appointed Hiram H. Lesar, dean of the SIUC School of Law, as acting president of SIUC at Carbondale following the resignation of President David R. Derge.

Derge announced his resignation and request for reassignment to the SIUC Department of Government during the board's regular monthly meeting, held at Carbondale. The request was granted.

Commenting on Lesar's appointment as acting president in a press conference following the board meeting, Board Chairman Ivan A. Elliott Jr. of Carbondale said the board chose Lesar after considering a number of possible candidates.

"We decided he was the most desirable for the position," Elliott said.

Lesar, 61, dean of the law school since 1972, said he accepted the board's request because he was asked. "I thought it was my duty," he said.

Lesar said his first action on assuming the president's duties would be to orient himself to the new assignment.

Lesar came to SIUC after 12 years as dean of the Washington University School of Law in St. Louis. Born in Thebes, Ill., he graduated with high honors from the University of Illinois School of Law in 1938.

Meanwhile, Willis E. Malone, special assistant to the president for planning and former SIUC executive vice-president, was appointed by the board to head the search committee to recommend a permanent president. The veteran SIUC faculty member and administrator has been at the school since 1959 and at one time was acting chancellor.

Derge, 46-year-old president of SIUC since February 1972, was reassigned as a teaching professor. He also was granted a three and one-half month leave of absence beginning Friday.

Malone told Elliott he hopes to have a list of nominees by Sept. 1. Elliott said he thought the date was optimistic but that the board wanted a "top notch candidate as soon as possible after a thorough search."

Derge's reassignment came after the board had approved a similar change for Danilo Orescanin, SIUC executive vice-president and treasurer, which followed a two-week investigation of "irregularities" in use of SIUC funds.

According to Elliott, the investigation showed that 18 university vouchers totaling nearly $5,000 were processed, calling for payments to the Holiday Inn in Carbondale for catering services, luncheons, dinners or receptions. None of these services were performed, investigators alleged.

Instead, said Board Chairman Elliott, the Holiday Inn bought liquor and other alcoholic beverages for SIUC, usually in case lots, and then sold it to the university with 10 per cent markup over the wholesale price paid by the Holiday Inn. Elliott said the liquor was used for official entertaining at University House over a period of 19 months.

The investigation further revealed, said Elliott, that purchasing liquor for SIUC in a similar manner was a practice of long standing—perhaps nine or 10 years.

"The liquor purchase scheme worked like this: An order was placed with the Holiday Inn," Elliott said.

"When the order arrived, an invoice was issued on Holiday Inn stationery or restaurant checks for restaurant services totaling the same amount of the liquor purchased. Vouchers were drawn to pay for the restaurant service, signed by Dr. Orescanin using President Derge's name, and the vouchers were processed in the regular manner."

Elliott said it appeared that Derge did not know how the liquor was being bought.

Derge, Elliott said, had told Orescanin to find a way to buy liquor without using state appropriations.

Elliott said the fund was used for payment. Elliott said the fund that was used for payment was made up of monies paid the university for "administration of federal programs, trust fund interest, etc."

Elliott said the board's legal counsel advised that buying liquor from university funds is not illegal and that the state Purchasing Act, which requires bids on goods and services of $1,500, apparently was not violated.

The board's main concern, he said, was the fact that university vouchers were drawn for services not rendered.

"The board feels a deep responsibility to see that all financial transactions of the university are handled within the law and according to established accounting practices."

In his new position, Dr. Derge will teach on a nine-month basis at a salary of $34,500. As president, he was paid $30,000 for 12 months. Orescanin will take a similar salary cut from $40,000 to $27,000.

In his request to the board Friday, Derge said, "I believe this reassignment will be in the best interest of the university."

Elliott told reporters at a press conference later that he agreed with Derge's request but stressed that it was "not altogether" linked to the fund irregularities.

Firing of SIUC faculty members also has been a matter of controversy. Derge will begin his teaching and research duties in the fall semester.

Lesar said he is not a candidate for the permanent presidency.

Elliott asked Malone to have

recommendations for membership on the presidential search committee ready for the April 12 trustee's meeting at SIUC.

GC Rotary observes 50th year

About 150 celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Granite City Rotary Club last week at Sunset Hills Country Club, honoring Arthur Roman of Granite City as a charter member and Past District Gov. George T. Wilkins Sr. as a newly-designated Paul Harris Foundation fellowship award recipient.

The Foundation finances scholarships and overseas travel.

A buffet supper was enjoyed, and there was dancing. President Joseph Hassler presided and District 646 Gov. Kenneth Evers spoke on "The Best of Fifty," citing varying attitudes and issues of the past half-century.

Frank Mercer and Richard Kerch were introduced as sons of charter Rotarians. It was noted that the club served as sponsor for two 49-year-old Rotary clubs, Madison and Edwardsville.

The observance emphasized Rotary principles of service above self and international understanding. It was announced that a goal of 74 Granite City members by 1974 has been reached.

Price urges 'dollar checkoff'

Cong. Melvin Price is encouraging use of the "dollar checkoff," a method whereby taxpayers may direct a portion of their federal income tax payments into a special presidential campaign fund.

"Public financing of elections can lead us away from the type of indiscretion which characterized the campaign in 1972," said the Congressman. "The dollar checkoff, if utilized by enough taxpayers, could become the central feature of an effective financing plan."

"If enough taxpayers check off to provide full funding—about $24 million per candidate—candidates will not be permitted to solicit or accept any private money."

Price emphasized that the checkoff will cost the taxpayer nothing extra. "It simply provides, for the first time, that a taxpayer can specifically tell the government how to spend part of his income tax payment."

The checkoff is performed by checking line 8 and the line directly above the taxpayer's signature in the federal income tax form. Up to $2 of a taxpayer's payment can be directed into the campaign fund. The fund is divided equally between Republican and Democratic candidates.

Congressman Price has asked the Labor-HEW Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee to approve urgent supplementary appropriations for public employment programs.

The Subcommittee is currently considering a supplementary appropriation measure, but Cong. Price feels that the $250 million for public employment programs should be given urgent status.

"This approach has been utilized in the past," he said. "We should use it in this case to insure needed continuity and protect employment opportunities for those most in need at a time of increasing economic uncertainty."

The Congressman took the action after learning that the St. Clair County government program faces severe manpower cutbacks as a result of lack of funds.

Dr. George T. Wilkins, Former State Superintendent of Education, State of Illinois, Gives Committed Endorsement in Up-coming Election of Madison County Superintendent.

Dr. George T. Wilkins of Granite City has given his hearty endorsement for Vasil Eftimoff for superintendent, Education Service Region, Madison County Schools. Dr. Wilkins, who describes his personal track record in local, County, and state educational leadership "as a part of my life for which I am most proud," has stated, "The endorsement of one man from those who follow after me is a very rare but precious means by which I can still seek to insure the quality education of our young people."

HOMEOWNERS of Granite City:

WOULD YOU OBJECT TO AN APARTMENT COMPLEX
BEING BUILT NEXT TO YOUR HOME?

DO YOU THINK THE PLANNING COMMISSION IS RIGHT
IN VOTING FOR CONSTRUCTION OF APARTMENTS
WHEN ALL ADJACENT HOMEOWNERS OBJECTED?

Petitions were signed by the homeowners. Not one homeowner approved. But the Planning Commission Board who voted for it is a board of men consisting of:

"BANKING PEOPLE"
"CONSTRUCTION PEOPLE"
"ARCHITECTS" etc...

AGAINST THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE!!

If you are opposed to this kind of "ASSET", as it was so politely quoted from the floor, contact your alderman today, as there will be a council meeting tonight at 8:00 P.M. at City Hall.

In Memoriam 33

In loving memory of BILL
WALLACE who passed away
March 26, 1973.
He did not go a last farewell.
Not even a goodbye.
He was gone before I knew it
And only God knew why.
They say time heals all sorrows
And helps us to forget.
But time so far has only proved
How much I miss him yet.
God gave me the strength to face it
And courage to face the blow.
But what it means to lose him
No one will ever know.
My heart aches with sadness.
My eyes shed many a tear.
God knows how much I miss him
This long lost past year.
Sadly missed by—

3 years has passed since you've been gone.
The days drag by, the nights are long.
God called you home, death
closed your eyes.
We had no time to say goodbyes.
It was God's will, we don't ask why.
We know we'll see you by and
